ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMITTEE

COMMITTEE POSITIONS AND ROLE DESCRIPTIONS

The structure of Committees and roles within Committees may vary according to their purpose and length of operation. The Parramatta Female Factory Friends

Role of the President (Chair)

Charged with providing leadership and direction to the Committee, the President is responsible for ensuring that the Committee fulfils its responsibilities for the governance and success of the organization. He/she also works to optimise the relationship between the Committee, volunteers and other members, and to achieve the organization's agreed goals. The President is generally the spokesperson for the organization and should work to maintain key relationships within and outside of the organization.

Role of the Vice President (Vice Chair)

The Vice President is responsible for assisting the President to fulfil his/her responsibilities for the governance and success of the organization. This may mean chairing meetings at short notice. The Vice President role is commonly regarded as preparation for the next President. At times, the Vice President will need to work with the President to help him/her understand concerns and alternative points of view within the organization.

Role of the Treasurer

The Treasurer is responsible for the financial supervision of the organization to allow the Committee to provide good governance of the organization. The Treasurer is the chief financial management officer whose tasks include the preparation of annual budgets, planning for the organization's financial future and monitoring the organization's revenue and expenditure. The Treasurer should ensure that the organization does not incur debts that are not expected to be repaid. It is desirable that the Treasurer is well organized and possesses a level of financial expertise.

Role of the General Secretary

The General Secretary is responsible for the documentation and communications of the activities of the Committee. The Secretary is the primary administration officer of the Committee. The Secretary should be a good communicator, maintain confidentiality on relevant matters and have the ability to delegate tasks and supervise others. AS communicator the General Secretary's tasks are to prepare agendas, receive and disseminate correspondence to and from the organization etc.

Role of the Minute Secretary

The Minute Secretary is responsible for writing and disseminating minutes to the membership.

Role of Membership Secretary

Membership Secretary is responsible for supporting the membership, sharing social information, organising social activities for members, inducting new members to the Friend's rooms and the organisation and maintaining current membership. The membership secretary is also responsible for providing new members with organization information: constitution, meeting times, and encouraging new members.

EX OFFICIO POSITIONS

The Ex- Officio positions are non-voting roles and can be held by committee members or general members.

Role of the Public Officer

The Public Officer is appointed by the Committee and is not elected by the general membership of the incorporated organization. Generally, this person needs to be a member of the State and over the age of 18. In short, the Public Officer provides the liaison between the organization and Consumer Affairs.

Role of the Tour Coordinator

The Tour Coordinator manages tour program, liaises with potential visitors/tour groups and organises the nature and content of the tour, determines a mutually agreed date and organises roster of guides for each group. They also provide conditions and information with tours and arranges payment by the tour participants

Role of the Research Centre Coordinator

The Research Centre Coordinator manages the research centre program of workshops, research inquiries, research program, volunteer work and related resources.

Role of the Publicity Officer

The Publicity Officer is responsible for promotion of the organization, maintaining media contacts and developing relevant media releases. organization of incoming talks for membership and interested public members.

Role of the Newsletter Editor

The Newsletter Editor Officer is responsible for editorial content, style, liaison with contributors and dissemination of the final publication.

Role of the Site Monitor

The Site Monitor identifies and reports the status of buildings and site localities within the Parramatta Female Factory Footprint.

Role of the Work Health and Safety Officer

The Work Health and Safety Officer is responsible for advising regarding the work health and safety of members and visitors and enacting the COVID-19 Marshall Position and ensuring the adherence as outlined by the Public Health Authorities.

Role of the Tearoom Coordinator

The Tearoom Coordinator is responsible for advising regarding catering for events, coordinating the tearooms during events and ensuring health and safety compliance is adhered to in relation to any service of food and drink.

MEMBER CODES OF CONDUCT

WORK HEALTH & SAFETY STATEMENT

The Parramatta Female Factory Friends organisation is committed to providing and maintaining a safe and healthy working environment for its members and anyone entering its premises or with connection to the organisation's operations.

In demonstrating our Duty of Care, the organisation will make every reasonable effort to provide a working environment that minimises incidents of risk or personal injury, ill health or damage to property. This includes providing:

- members with appropriate training
- safe plant and equipment and systems of work
- regular consultation on health and safety issues

A safe working culture is the responsibility of everyone. Members are responsible for their own safety and the safety of other members, visitors and contractors. A safe culture can be best achieved through cooperative efforts of our members, and will be reinforced through:

- continually identifying, assessing and controlling possible risks to the health and safety of people that may arise in the workplace.
- the provision of information concerning such risks and the promotion, instruction, training and supervision of our members to ensure safe work
